“Unknown wonders of Tucumán”

1) Read the texts. Choose the best title for each one.

a. The Empanada Route

b. The Wine Route

c. The Lemon Route

Famaillá is a small and friendly town in Tucumán. It is the “Capital of the Empanada”. People go there to eat delicious food.

A real Tucumán empanada has meat, onion, and eggs. It is very juicy. The tradition is very old. Families pass the recipe to their children. Each empanada is special because it has 13 to 15 folds (repulgues). Every year, there is a big party with music and singers to celebrate this food. _____ Tucumán also has a famous Wine Route in the North of Argentina. The wine grows in a place called the Calchaquí Valley.

The weather in this area is very hot in the summer and very dry in the winter. There are big mountains and sandy land. Tucumán is famous for its red wines, like Malbec. There is also a white wine called Torrontés. The wine is high quality and has a lot of history. _____
