PREVENTING STREET THEFT: STAY ALERT AND SAFE

Many petty crimes in urban areas occur because citizens are unaware of their surroundings. Here are essential safety recommendations to protect your belongings:

Safety Advice:

- Keep your mobile phone zipped inside an inner bag pocket when walking in busy streets.
- Never leave valuable gadgets unattended on tables or benches in public places.
- Avoid wearing expensive jewelry when taking public transportation late at night.
- Always stay alert and watchful instead of looking down continuously at screen devices.

READ TWO VICTIMS' ACCOUNTS...

Lucas's Story:

"I was waiting at a central bus stop after my university class last Thursday. It was late afternoon and the sidewalk was filled with commuters. I was standing near the curb listening to music on my headphones. My brand new tablet was resting on top of my backpack on the ground next to my feet. While I was checking the bus schedule on my smartphone, a cyclist rode past quickly, snatched my tablet off the backpack, and sped away down the avenue. I shouted for help, but he vanished into traffic instantly. I reported the crime to the police station, but officers couldn't locate him."

Valentina's Story:

"I was studying at a cozy downtown coffee shop last Wednesday afternoon. I decided to walk over to the counter to buy a sandwich, so I left my expensive camera sitting on the wooden table. I didn't take my camera with me because I believed I would only be away for thirty seconds. While I was paying the cashier, a man wearing a black hoodie grabbed my camera strap and walked out the exit door. When I returned to my chair, my camera was gone. We checked the coffee shop's surveillance cameras, but the thief wore a baseball cap and dark sunglasses."
